

ORDINANCE NO. 616

AN ORDINANCE SUBMITTING TO THE VOTERS OF THE CITY OF LAS ANIMAS AT THE ELECTION TO BE HELD ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1999, A QUESTION AS TO THE ELIMINATION OF THE REQUIREMENT OF THE ELECTION OF THE CITY CLERK/CITY TREASURER AND THEREBY MAKING SAID POSITION AN APPOINTED POSITION OF THE CITY.

WHEREAS, heretofore, the City of Las Animas Clerk and Treasurer has been elected by a vote of the people of the City of Las Animas pursuant to Section 2-6.1 of the Municipal Code of the City of Las Animas and pursuant to Section 31-4-05 of the Colorado Revised Statutes; and

WHEREAS, as a result of the elective status of the City Clerk and City Treasurer, and with the subsequent passing of the constitutional amendment requiring term limitations for elected individuals, the City Clerk and City Treasurer are no longer in a position to maintain the position so as to afford that individual the benefits of retirement; and

WHEREAS, given the current City management structure, there is no possible basis for position or professional advancement of the City Clerk/City Treasurer within the City; and

WHEREAS, as a result thereof, the attractability of the position of City Clerk/City Treasurer is lessened by these unintended ramifications; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the City Council that the City Council provide for employment in that position that allows competent personnel to remain in that position and to acquire vested and fulfilled retirement benefits, and further provide a mechanism which may allow for the advancement and promotion of the City Clerk/City Treasurer to other positions within the City as the City Council may so desire; and

WHEREAS, the City Council is relying in part upon the Court case set forth in Zaner v. City of Brighton, 899 P.2d 263, and the Court case of "In re Incorporation of the City of Lone Tree", Case NO. 95 CV 312, it is the impression of the City Council of the City of Las Animas, that this issue is not a issue which requires compliance with "Amendment One", also known as the "Bruce Amendment", also known as "Tabor Amendment";

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF LAS ANIMAS, COLORADO:

SECTION 1. That Section 2-6.1 of the Municipal Code of the City of Las Animas, Colorado is herein repealed in its entirety, if and only if, and upon the favorable passage of the ballot question set forth in Section 2 below. If said ballot question does not obtain a majority of the favorable votes from the citizens of the City of Las Animas so as to be declared an affirmative vote of the people of the City of Las Animas to this proposition, then this Section 1 shall have no force and effect, and Section 2-6.1 shall remain in full force and effect as currently enacted.

SECTION 2. At the regular municipal election to be held in the various precincts and at the polling places of the City of Las Animas on Tuesday, November 2, 1999, between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m., there shall be submitted to the voters of the City an ordinance which become effective January 1, 2000. The full text of the ordinance to be submitted is as follows:

AN ORDINANCE TO ALLOW THE ELIMINATION OF THE REQUIREMENT OF THE ELECTION OF THE CITY CLERK AND CITY TREASURER AND THEREBY MAKING SAID POSITIONS AN APPOINTIVE POSITION OF THE CITY.

SECTION A. A new Section of the Municipal Code is hereby enacted as follows:

Section 2-6.1. City Clerk and City Treasurer. Effective January 1, 2000, the City Clerk of the City of Las Animas shall be an employee of the City of Las Animas. Compensation for the City Clerk and City Treasurer shall be determined within the budgetary actions of the City Council. The supervisory authority of the City Clerk and City Treasurer shall be determined by the City Council, and the City Clerk and the City Treasurer shall report directly to the Mayor. The City Clerk position shall be one of a supervisor and as such, the City Clerk/City Treasurer shall have supervisory control over portions of the administrative staff, as are set forth more fully in any organizational chart adopted and approved by the City Council.

SECTION B. It is the intention of the qualified electors of the City of Las Animas that this ordinance, and any part or provision hereof, shall be considered severable; any invalidity of any part, section, provision, clause, sentence, or fragment of this ordinance will not affect the validity of any other portion of this ordinance; the qualified electors would have adopted the provisions of this ordinance, or any part or provision hereof, regardless of the validity of any part, section, provision, clause, sentence, or fragment hereof.

SECTION 3. The official ballot and the official absentee ballot shall state the substance of the proposition and so state shall constitute the ballot title, designation, and submission clause, and each qualified elector voting at the election shall indicate his or her choice on the proposition submitted, which shall be as follows:

Effective January 1, 2000 , the position of City Clerk and City Treasurer shall no longer be an elected position by the citizens of Las Animas and thereafter, the City Clerk/City Treasurer shall be an appointive position.
